Pike, Effort Forest Fires Extinguished

State foresters and volunteers gained control of a forest fire which burned for 24 hours in southern Pike county late yesterday, and another spot fire was knocked down shortly after it started in the Effort area.

District Forester E. Clyde Pyle said the Pike county fire, which started on Sunday and burned over 400 acres was put down at 4 p. m. Most of the tract blacked in the two-day period was on lands of the Bright Creek club, but 150 acres of the burned section were on State forest lands.

Another section in the burned area is owned by the Blooming Grove club, Pyle stated. He added that there are several hunting camps in the region, but that none of these was damaged.

Meantime, another crew was dispatched to the Effort area when a tractor backfired near a logging operation and set the woods afire.

The blaze was reported immediately, however, and forestry men and members of the logging crew were able to stop it while damage was still negligible.

Pyle cited the instance to show what can be done if flash fires are reported immediately instead of being left to gain dangerous headway.

Baxter, Film Veteran, Dies

Beverly Hills, Calif. (AP)—Warner Baxter, 62, veteran motion picture actor, died at his home last night after a long illness. He had suffered from arthritis for years and a lobotomy was performed three weeks ago to alleviate his pain. Bronchial pneumonia set in recently and hastened his death.

Baxter, the original "Cisco Kid" of the movies, enjoyed ruggedness in life in keeping with virile characters he portrayed on the screen. Deep sea fishing, hunting and tennis were his favorite hobbies.

But in recent years he was chronically ill, suffering pain which made eating difficult and induced malnutrition. In April, 1951, he underwent cranial surgery at St. John's hospital in Santa Monica, then returned to his Beverly Hills home.

His second wife, the former stage actress Winifred Bryson, celebrated their 33rd wedding anniversary in January 1951. He was married in 1911 to Viola Caldwell of Philadelphia but they separated soon after and were divorced.

He was born in Columbus, Ohio, March 29, 1889.

Military Planes Collide; Four Bodies Recovered

Houston. (AP)—Two military planes collided in the air here last night. Four bodies were recovered. The planes collided six miles northeast of Ellington Air Force base, Ellington is about 15 miles southeast of Houston.

There were reports that at least one crewman was seen to parachute from one of the planes.

There was no immediate information on the size, destination, or base of origin of the planes but it was believed they were from Ellington.

Earlier a man reported a plane exploded at high altitude.

Prisoner Escapes

Pittsburgh. (AP)—Five long-term prisoners rushed a 78-year-old guard yesterday and bound and gagged him in a daring break at Western penitentiary. Only one of the five made good his escape.

Estenssoro Leads

La Paz, Bolivia. (AP)—Latest returns from presidential elections boosted exiled Victor Paz Estenssoro to an overall majority yesterday.

Second Session Of Series To Begin At 9:30

The second session of The Daily Record's free cooking school series will be held Wednesday morning in the Sherman Theatre, Stroudsburg. Doors open at 9 a. m. and the school starts promptly at 9:30.

Misses Grace Shankweiler and Katherine Guldin, both of the home service department of the Pennsylvania Power and Light Co., are the home economists who will lecture, demonstrate and cook the food during the session.

Scores of fine gifts will be given at each of the four sessions of the school and at the concluding session in June, valuable prizes will be presented to women who have been faithful in attendance and who have visited the places of the participating merchants.

There is no cost or obligation to those women who attend the school. All expenses are borne by The Daily Record and its long list of participants.

Richter Novel Wins Pulitzer Fiction Prize

New York (AP)—Conrad Richter's novel, "The Town," a story of an American family growing up in the wilderness of the 19th century, yesterday won the Pulitzer prize for fiction.

There was no award this year for drama in the theater.

Awards for meritorious public service in the newspaper field went to the Miami, Fla., Herald and the Brooklyn Eagle. Both were cited for crime reporting in 1950.

Columbia University trustees, who announced the Pulitzer selections, named six foreign correspondents—including the first woman ever so honored—as prize winners for international reporting.

The woman, 30-year-old Marguerite Higgins of the New York Herald Tribune, was cited for her work as a war correspondent in Korea.

She shared honors with five men, including a colleague, Homer Bigart of the Herald Tribune, who became a two-time winner. He first won a Pulitzer prize in 1946 for his World War Two reporting in the Pacific.

Besides Miss Higgins and Bigart, those named for Korean war reporting were Relman Morin and Don Whitehead of the Associated Press, and Keyes Beech of the Chicago Daily News.

The sixth winner in that field was Fred Sparks, also of the Chicago Daily News, for a Berlin series on reborn German nationalism.

Cyrus L. Sulzberger of the New York Times was given a special citation for a number of exclusive interviews, including one with Archbishop Stepinac of Yugoslavia in the prelate's prison cell.

Another two-time winner was Carl Sandburg, who won a poetry award for his complete poems.

Sandburg won a Pulitzer prize in history in 1940 for his "Abraham Lincoln: The War Years."

The history awarded this year went to R. Carlyle Buley for his "The Old Northwest, Pioneer period, 1815-1840."

For biography, Marge Louise Coit was cited for her "John C. Calhoun: American Portrait."

In the field of music, Douglas Stuart Moore's three-act opera, "Giants in the Earth," won the prize.

A 1,500 traveling scholarship in art was awarded to Arthur Howard Hansen of New York City, adjudged the most promising and deserving art student.

$3,121 Which Surviving Relative Didn't Want Is Turned Over To Guardian

The story of a surviving relative, who in 1948 refused to accept $3,121 from the estate of the late David Franklin Edinger, came to an end on Monroe county court yesterday when Claude E. Metzgar, clerk of the orphan court, was relieved of responsibility in the settlement of the estate.

When the estate was dispersed in 1948, Clerk Metzgar experienced difficulty in disposing of a final $3,121 which Laura Frances Kinney, a survivor, steadfastly refused to accept.

Wilson Asks Subsidies On Farm Products

Washington (AP)—Mobilization Director Charles E. Wilson asked Congress yesterday for standby authority to pay Federal subsidies on food and farm products to forestall any lag in defense production.

Along with this request, Wilson cautioned that the worst shortages of materials and "the biggest threat of inflation" are yet to come.

The mobilization chief appeared as lead-off witness before the Senate Banking committee in opening the administration's fight to extend and strengthen Federal inflation controls. The hearings are scheduled to last 20 days. Price, wage and credit control provisions of the defense production act expire June 30.

Even before Wilson testified, the committee, meeting behind closed doors, at last temporarily sidetracked President Truman's proposal for rent controls on stores, office space and other commercial properties.

Chairman Maybank (D-SC) told newsmen the question will be left until the end of the hearings "if it is taken up at all."

Senator Bricker (R-Ohio) quickly challenged the administration's bid for subsidy power by asking if it was not a limited version of the controversial Brannan plan—the program advocated by Secretary of Agriculture Brannan to make direct Federal payments to farmers in an effort to halt rising food prices.

"It is like the Brannan plan in a marginal way," Wilson replied. "Generally speaking, I don't like it, either, but it would be done only in an emergency."

Wedemeyer May Retire

San Francisco (AP)—Lt. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer, whose long-secret report warned of a Red attack on South Korea, has asked for retirement from the United States Army.

General Wedemeyer is commanding general of the Sixth Army, whose headquarters here yesterday confirmed that he had applied for retirement.

Headquarters said the general would not issue a statement at this time because he felt it was "not appropriate for him to make any further statement until the application is acted upon."

Wedemeyer, now 53, will not reach the full retirement age of 62 until July, 1959. Aides said he had been considering retirement for two years and had nothing in mind other than "taking it easy."

They said his annual retirement pay would be $8,502—three-fourths of his present salary of $11,456.

Aides of Wedemeyer firmly denied his request for retirement had any connection with the MacArthur-policy debate now raging in Congress.

Willie McGee Loses Appeal

Washington (AP)—Willie McGee, Mississippi Negro, lost an eleventh hour appeal last night to Supreme Court Justice Hugo Black to stay McGee's execution for the rape of a white woman.

Justice Black's decision was announced at 10:50 p. m. McGee is scheduled to die at 2:01 a. m.

The Negro's attorneys immediately took a similar appeal for a stay to Chief Justice Fred Vinson.

Penmar, Pa. (AP)—A two-year-old child, object of a widespread search over this hilly countryside, was found safe at 12:15 a. m. today.

She was asleep in a clothes basket in her parents' bedroom closet. Little Susan Jane Brechbill had been missing since 6 p. m., when she scooted out of her high chair and went out to play.

Her father, Guy Brechbill, opened the closet door and happened to look at a bundle of clothes at his feet. Susan was sleeping like a log.

Accuses Syria Israel-Syrian Frontier (AP)—Israel accused Syria yesterday of "armed aggression" in the six-day fighting along the northern frontier and demanded a U. N. Security Council meeting to take up the issue.

New Quakes Felt Where 1,000 Died

San Salvador, El Salvador. (AP)—New earthquakes were reported in southeastern El Salvador yesterday in the wake of a devastating quake Sunday which killed approximately 1,000 persons in Jucupa alone.

The new tremors were reported in the cities of Santiago de Maria and in Berlin, both in Usulután department. Santiago de Maria was damaged by the first quake. It has a population of 20,000 and Berlin of 15,000. No casualties have been reported thus far in the second day's quake.

Hundred were injured Sunday. The president of the republic, Lt. Col. Oscar Osorio, accompanied by high military and civil authorities, led a vanguard of Red Cross and other relief and rescue workers into the stricken area. The government decreed three days of national mourning for the worst earthquake disaster in the country's history.

Senate Unit Acts On Tax Bills Today

Harrisburg (AP)—The Senate Finance committee punctuated a public hearing on Gov. John S. Fine's tax program yesterday by immediately calling a meeting for today to act on the tax bills.

Chairman T. Newell Wood (R-Luzerne) was firm in his forecast that the $163,000,000 tax program, featuring the controversial one-half of one per cent personal income levy, would be approved by the committee.

Republican and Democratic leaders agreed to debate and vote on the bill next week even though it may reach the floor today.

The agreement put to rest earlier speculation that the administration would drive for a final vote on the income tax this week. That would have meant extraordinary sessions Thursday and Friday.

The individual income tax bill would raise $119,000,000 in the next two years. A companion bill to raise the corporate net income tax one per cent to five per cent would yield an additional $44,000,000.

The five-hour public hearing saw labor attack the personal income tax as a "soak-the-poor" levy. Business groups divided in their stand on the hotly disputed issue.

Both the AFL-Pennsylvania Federation of Labor and the State CIO council renewed opposition to the tax and were joined by the Smaller Manufacturers council, of Pittsburgh. The latter group preferred a sales tax.

But both the Pennsylvania Manufacturers association and the State Chamber of Commerce gave their support to the Governor's tax program.

Studio Cancels Parks' Contract

Hollywood (AP)—Columbia studios announced yesterday its contract with actor Larry Parks has been cancelled by "mutual consent." Parks recently told the House Un-American Activities Committee he once was a Communist.

The contract called for one picture a year for the next three years.

The studio did not elaborate on its "mutual consent" explanation. Parks was not available for comment.

Dissatisfied Reds Retreat Before Allies

Tokyo, Tuesday (AP)—South Korean troops smashed hard into a North Korean Army corps north-west of Seoul yesterday and rolled it back three miles to points 13 miles from the capital.

Other Allied forces in the east forced back hard-fighting Reds a mile and a half.

These Red setbacks on the flanks and a withdrawal north of Chunchon in the center coincided with reports of dissatisfaction in Communist ranks.

AP Correspondent John Randolph reported some Allied officers on the western front believe North Korean and Chinese Reds were angry because they felt Russia had let them down on tanks and planes for their now stalled spring offensive.

The Allies have won back nearly half of the ground lost north of Seoul to 300,000 Reds who aimed the main weight of their futile offensive at capture of the capital by May day.

"There is no denying that before the offensive began April 22 there were many signs that the Reds were counting on tanks and aircraft," Randolph said in his dispatch from the western front.

"Behind their front, roads were being widened and improved and for weeks there had been constant work on regular fields and new air-strips.

"Further, many prisoners captured at that time told of promised Russian armament. Yet, when the offensive jumped off, the Red infantry had help only from a single artillery division that went silent after the first night.

"In the succeeding six days of attack, the Reds piled up heaps of their own dead, trying to break the elastic Allied line with foot soldiers.

"Uncle Joe (Stalin) sold them down the river again, one officer exulted after the first few hours of the offensive showed no tanks or planes."

Last weekend, some 7,000 North Koreans northwest of Seoul stood their ground and defeated Allied attempts to dislodge them.

But yesterday at dawn, South Koreans opened an attack with support of Allied artillery. The Reds resisted until late afternoon. Then the North Koreans began a general withdrawal from advance hill positions.

The South Koreans said they were in contact with a division and a half of North Koreans, fighting in groups up to regimental strength.

In central Korea, Allied armored patrols plunged north through Chunchon yesterday. They found the highway center deserted by Chinese Reds. It is eight miles south of the 38th parallel and 45 miles northeast of Seoul.

Allied gains in the east were near Inje, which is four miles north of the 38th parallel.

Serafin Pleads Guilty To Murder

Scranton. (AP)—Stanley Serafin, 54, yesterday pleaded guilty to a general charge of murder in the fatal shooting of Mrs. Sophie Zymbloski, Scranton tavern owner, last March 1.

Judges Otto P. Robinson and Michael J. Engen scheduled a hearing Friday to fix the degree of guilt.

Serafin was a lodger at the apartment house of Mrs. Zymbloski, a divorcee, at the time of the shooting. Police told the court Serafin shot and killed her after a quarrel.

Upholds Alien Law

Gen. George C. Marshall

Iceland Hails Second Coming Of Americans

Reykjavik, Iceland. (AP)—U. S. Brig. Gen. Edward J. McGaw landed by air yesterday with the first contingent of American Army, Navy and Air Forces to help defend this North Atlantic republic.

(The Defense department in Washington said the force consisted of 200 men.)

Icelandic newspapers got out extras announcing the second coming of the Yanks. The government issued a statement saying the troops had arrived at the invitation of this country, an independent member of the North Atlantic alliance.

It was believed the force will be built up gradually in the next few weeks. Its activities will center around the two main airports, Keflavik, 30 miles from the capital, and Reykjavik, but listening posts and other strategic installations about the island will also be manned.

American troops were stationed here from early in the Second World War and were the only defense force for this island close to the Arctic Circle. Iceland's airfields and bases were an important factor in the protection of convoy routes across the North Atlantic.

The President declared the free nations stopped Communism's march in Asia and "dealt a heavy blow to the Kremlin conspiracy" all over the world. He asserted there are signs of a crackup behind the Iron curtain.

He said a "go it alone" policy might destroy the western world's defense effort and result in a "tremendous Soviet victory."

Marshall hinted this country will hit Red China by air and sea if the Reds strike at American forces outside Korea, presumably those in Japan and with the Seventh Fleet in Far Eastern waters.

Marshall came to the hearing—by the Senate Armed Services and Foreign Relations committee—armed with a big pile of secret documents. And whole chunks of his testimony were deleted by the Defense and State department censors who are "combing" the record for security purposes before it is released to newsmen.

Almost sadly, the 70-year-old Marshall struck back at a "brother officer" in defense of the conduct of the Korean war which he said was approved by the Joint Chiefs of Staff (JCS) and himself.

He said he did not believe—as MacArthur does—that bombing Chinese bases in Manchuria will bring victory in Korea. And he added that while MacArthur never violated military campaign directives—he did violate orders against public statements.

Further, he denied as MacArthur had suggested, that he or President Truman had overruled the Joint Chiefs of Staff in war plans which agreed in part to those proposed by the deposed general. And he denied the administration is considering Red China's admission to the United Nations and the fate of Formosa as the basis of a Korean peace treaty.

MacArthur had told senators the JCS had urged against any consideration of U. N. membership for Red China and Formosa's future in peace discussions—and that he understood the recommendation had been vetoed by Marshall.

Marshall replied vigorously to MacArthur as the first administration witness to be heard by the Senate committees. These groups are studying U. S. Asia policy and the reasons for MacArthur's ouster.

Deploping this "very distressing occasion," Marshall pictured MacArthur as a commander who had grown so far out of sympathy with U. S. policy that his superiors doubted his ability to make the proper command decisions in the field.

"He would have us accept the risk of involvement not only in an extension of the war with Red China," Marshall said, "but in an all-out war with the Soviet Union."

"He would have us do this even though the effect of such action might expose western Europe to attack by the millions of Soviet troops poised in middle and eastern Europe."

And then, point by point, Marshall disputed many of MacArthur's statements and warned against the general's proposal to step up the Korean war by bombing Red China and forcing a Communist surrender. It was MacArthur's outspoken calls for this action—and the use of Chinese Nationalist troops—which led to his dismissal.

Risk Of All-Out War, Atom Raids Cited By Leaders

By Don Whitehead

Washington (AP)—President Truman last night joined Secretary of Defense Marshall in blasting Gen. Douglas MacArthur's war plans in Korea. The President said widening the conflict might bring down a rain of bombs on American cities.

Mr. Truman's broadcast and televised speech came after Marshall told senators that MacArthur's proposals would risk all-out war with Russia, expose Europe to attack and perhaps split the free world into two camps.

The President, following through on the administration's double-barreled counterattack, said a single atom bomb exploding over an American city would cause more casualties than the U. S. has suffered in all the Korean war.

"I do not want to be responsible for bringing that about," Mr. Truman said.

The President added these statements to a previously prepared speech for a civil defense conference.

Marshall charged that MacArthur's peace appeal last March 24 to the Red commander in Korea had destroyed any chances of a Korean war settlement at that time.

He said the United Nations was preparing an announcement of readiness to discuss a war settlement—the announcement to come from President Truman—when MacArthur made his peace-talk offer without approval from Washington.

"In view of the serious impact of General MacArthur's statement on the negotiations of these nations," Marshall said, "It became necessary to abandon the effort, thus losing whatever chance there may have been at that time to negotiate a settlement of the Korean conflict."

A few hours after Marshall testified behind closed doors—as did General MacArthur last week—the President stepped back into the Asia policy fight.

Mr. Truman sharply disputed the general's argument that the present policy in Korea may lead to another war and that this country should "go it alone" if necessary to force a Communist surrender by bombing Red China.

The President declared the free nations stopped Communism's march in Asia and "dealt a heavy blow to the Kremlin conspiracy" all over the world. He asserted there are signs of a crackup behind the Iron curtain.

He said a "go it alone" policy might destroy the western world's defense effort and result in a "tremendous Soviet victory."

Marshall hinted this country will hit Red China by air and sea if the Reds strike at American forces outside Korea, presumably those in Japan and with the Seventh Fleet in Far Eastern waters.

Fire Company Clears $300 At Style Show

Newfoundland — A capacity crowd of 600 persons laughed itself hoarse at the antics of local firemen here Saturday night as the firefighters, dressed in ladies' attire, put on a "fashion" show in the Greene-Dreher High school auditorium.

Introduced by master of ceremonies Lorimer Brown, the "hoaxies" paraded before a panel of "buyers," who viewed the styles exhibited with no more seriousness than did the throng that packed the auditorium.

The exhibition enriched the fire company's treasury to the tune of $300. Proceeds of the event will be applied to the retirement of the debt on the new firehouse.

Following the fashion parade, a number of musical specialties were presented and the entire company closed the show with group singing.

Weldon Hector directed the show and the music was furnished by Don Walter, Ralph Wert and Ray Smith.

Those participating included Adam Hahn, Jacob Robacker, Robert Baughman, Robert Keen, Lawrence Grimm, Elmore Haag, John Robacker, Harold Portas, Charles Schoenagie, Wardell Robacker, Charles Schelbert, William Evans, Charles Frey, Harvey Fribble, William Robacker, Russell Frey, Arthur Kramer, David Smith, Weldon Hector, Neal London, Patrick Peiffer, Hans Hansen, Lawrence Simons, Carroll Fetherman and Walter Steiger.

Boy, 10, Catches 17-Inch Trout In Debut As Angler

Bartonsville—Young Tommy Field, ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Field here, disdained the reports of a couple of expert fishermen with loads of expensive tackle and went out in Pococo Creek and caught a 17-inch brown trout on ordinary garden tackle.

Not only that, Tommy was making his debut at fishing. Equipped with a plain ordinary fishing "pole" and a couple of worms, Tommy caught his big beauty after only a couple of casts.

Weller To Preside At First Meeting

First meeting to be conducted under Franklin E. Weller, newly elected commander of the Thomas P. Lambert Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, will be held today at 8:15 p. m. in the post home.

During the business meeting there will be nomination and election of delegates to the Monroe County council.

Refreshments and entertainment are planned and an attendance prize will be awarded.

Serfass Rites Held Yesterday

Brodheadsville — Funeral services for William R. Serfass were held yesterday from the Edgar B. Hamm funeral home. Rev. James A. Laubach, pastor of Gilbert Lutheran church, officiated.

Pallbearers were Richard Serfass, Vernon Hepler, Lewis Serfass, Kenneth Serfass, Bert Serfass, Lester Babcock. Interment was in Gilbert cemetery.

Entertainment To Highlight Dance Program

Anna Logan society officials, sponsors of the public dedication dance at Penn-Stroud hotel this Saturday night in conjunction with formal opening of the new $1,400,000 General hospital, listed portions of the entertainment for the party.

Miss Shirley Schwartz will do a tap dance routine. Ellen Coleman will be the featured soloist. Harold and John Eaton are scheduled to play a trumpet-piano duet.

Dance will start at 9 and end at midnight. Dress will be optional. Lew Stanley and his Nighthawks will play for dancing.

All members of the society are selling tickets. They may also be purchased at Colonial diner, Biggs restaurant, Kresge's Flagler's and Rea & Derick drug stores, Globe Furniture, Hanford Cleveland's, Wyckoff's tea room, members of Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions, Exchange and Junior Woman's clubs.

Bertha Leshar Sells Property

Bertha M. Leshar, of Gilbert, has transferred title to a property on the Gilbert-Little Kunkletown road in Polk township to Kenneth R. and Earline Solt, also of Gilbert.

Deed for the transaction was placed on file here yesterday at the Monroe county court house of office of Register and Recorder Floyd Butz. According to the deed description, the property includes a tract of nearly two acres.

New Scheduling Procedure To Help Stroudsburg High Students Select Courses

A new scheduling procedure, to make possible more real counsel and guidance for students in selecting their courses, is being tried for the first time at Stroudsburg High school.

The plan was originated by a five-member committee consisting of Principal Alfred W. Munson, Samuel O. Wells III, vice principal; Mahlon Serfass, Jerome Stulgaitis and Gale P. Miner.

Previous steps in the program included an assembly in which all elective offerings were explained by instructors, informative talks to eighth grade students, who in the ninth grade will begin their program of study.

Today from 7:30 to 8:30 p. m., in the High school auditorium a group of educators will meet with eighth graders and their parents in an effort to further assist students in the correct choice of a well-rounded course of study.

Explanations and offerings of the six courses available will be given. They include general, college preparatory, commercial, vocational home economics, general-commercial, vocational agriculture.

Tomorrow at 8:45 a. m. there will be an assembly for all eighth, ninth, tenth and 11th grade students to explain the workings of the new program.

At 9:10 a. m. students will return to their homerooms and begin filling out their schedule cards. No classes will be held in the morning.

At 9:30 a. m. students will report to the gymnasium where actual registration will take place. Registration will be done on an individual basis as practiced on the college level. Teachers will assist each student in making out his schedule.

Mr. Munson explained such a system will give an early picture of what the master schedule will look like for next year and "materially reduce the mistakes and headaches, on the part of both teacher and student, which come in scheduling."

Classes tomorrow will run from 1 to 3 p. m. School will be dismissed a half hour early so that teachers can attend another meeting in their in-service training program.

Traffic Safety Dropping

The national safety picture grows steadily bleaker. Statistics just distributed by the National Safety Council show that deaths in March of this year were nine per cent greater than in March, 1950, and that the month was the 16th consecutive one showing such increases.

That brings small comfort for those who have been agitating and working for highway safety, even though some would contend that the rise in casualties is merely in line with the rise in number of passenger miles driven. There ought to be some reduction by reason of extensive education campaigns, improved highways and improved vehicles.

One thing remains crystal clear: the fight for highway safety has been far from won, and must be continued in its many phases.

OPA And Beef Prices

As it proceeds to the serious business of regulating meat prices the Office of Price Administration will be getting off to a bad start unless it can purge itself of the charge it is a patronage machine for 1952 and a refuge for political hacks and lame ducks.

New wholesale beef prices are scheduled to take effect Wednesday. They are being attacked in Congress and by the industry as unrealistic and as ignoring the "elementary fact that prices must cover production costs." On the eve of invoking the ceilings and in the face of the attacks on his decision Price Administrator DiSalle is standing his ground.

He is not being moved by threats of a meat strike or the fear of black markets. Experience points the other way. When producers of cattle refused to move the animals to market at the OPA prices in 1946, the whole post-war price fixing program was abandoned. Black markets were legion. DiSalle has expressed faith that the meat will be forthcoming and that his agents can take care of the black markets. The degree of enforcement will depend on the caliber of his personnel.

Two high officials, Vice-Adm. John H. Hoover and former Gov. M. E. Thompson of Georgia have already resigned, Hoover because he believes "politics has no place in an organization affecting every American home," and Thompson because he said he was doing absolutely nothing at $53.48 a day, which he refused to accept.

Without question the public is weary of the inept course taken thus far to check food prices and halt the flight of the New Deal dollar. It should be possible to determine what ceilings are within the capacity of the industry and we must credit Mr. DiSalle with the good sense of having made the attempt. Its success depends on the skill and knowledge of his advisors. Enforcement is a matter of personnel intent on doing the job without political favoritism and with alertness and energy.

Russian Murder

Once again the Russians have given evidence of the savage brutality inherent in their makeup. As a result an American corporal lies dead and the inevitable investigation goes forward with the equally inevitable result: zero.

This corporal, a young soldier on duty in Vienna, recently came out of a night club he had been checking in the routine round of patrol and challenged two uniformed men, Russian soldiers. Instead of answering the challenge as might be expected of the military from any nation other than Russia, the Russians started firing tommy guns and the American fell to the ground, to die a few minutes later.

Too many times since the occupation began in Europe, after the completion of the fighting of World War Two, Russians have been involved in similar inexcusable affairs in which American soldiers have been killed by the trigger-happy men of the Soviet forces.

Try And Stop Me

By Bennett Cerf

The late Ernie Byfield, boniface of Chicago's Ambassador East Hotel, had his own way of expressing himself. A friend met him, obviously elated, on the street of a Swiss village one day. "Why so happy?" asked the friend. Byfield explained, "I just made a sucker out of the Alps. I climbed them in spats."

At the most recent banquet of the American Bar Association, a consensus was sought of the two legal quips most often retold. These won hands down:

1. A wealthy barrister retired and turned over his practice to his son, just graduated from Harvard Law School. "Congratulations, me, Pop," exulted the son a few weeks later. "The completely settled that old equity suit for the Vanderfellers you've had pending for the past twenty years." "Settled it!" cried the father in disgust. "I left you that suit as an annuity for life."

2. A New York lawyer traveled to Phoenix to defend his firm's richest client. The moment the decision was announced, he wired his senior partner, "Justice has triumphed." The partner wired back, "Appeal at once."

Hollywood

By Gene Handsaker

Hollywood — So far as Louis Hayward can see, he'll have to go on swashing and buckling indefinitely. His public prefers him in costumed, past-era adventures, sword-a-swinging. And Louis is practical.

"I used to kick about it," he said after slipping into a pair of top-pocket pants of last-century London. "But now I'm relaxed and happy about it. After all, 50 per cent of the actors aren't working."

Louis doesn't know why, but the mysterious production powers—that-be-make a heavy of him when they put him into modern clothes. In "Repeat Performance" he slapped Joan Leslie. In "The House by the River," he smooched with a servant, then tossed her into the river to keep his wife from finding out. He got outraged fan letters like "I'll never go to see you again. Such a cad!" Hayward has decided that, for him, such roles are bad business.

At the moment he's playing "The Son of Dr. Jekyll." He has three film forebears in the Dr. Jekyll-Mr. Hyde role—John Barrymore, 1920; Fredric March, 1931; Spencer Tracy, '41. Louis tries to repeat his late father's personality—changing experiments, but there's none of the throat-gripping agony that made the earlier films such frightening fun. This one's on a more modern psychological plane.

Hayward is slated next for "The Brigand"—"17th century Spain: rough leather clothes. I'm the half-brother of the young king. It's the old story—Robin Hood with different hats." After that he'll again be piratical Captain Blood—"Probably 'The Further Adventures of Captain Blood.' He'll also produce and star in 13 television films in Italy as Monte Cristo.

It was "The Man in the Iron Mask"—actually the mask was copper, with eyeholes and a movable mouthpiece—that started Louis on the road of costumed adventure 13 years ago. Then came "The Son of Monte Cristo," "The Return of Monte Cristo," and "The Black Arrow." In "Pirates of Capri" he masqueraded as a court fool while leading the underground. In "Trouble for Two" he was a member of a suicide club whose fated members arranged to destroy each other.

Louis says earnestly—and understandably: "I'd love to do a modern comedy."

These Days — By George E. Sokolsky

Sokolsky

When a witness appears before a congressional committee, he can adopt the attitude that he was called because the committee wants to get something out of him. Certainly those who are called in the Communist cases often feel embarrassed by the subpoena, for there is always the fear that the public might assume that being called for evidence is being accused of subversion.

John Garfield, the motion picture actor, went to the House committee on un-American activities accompanied by his lawyer, Louis Nizer, and by public relations counsel and his testimony was glibly and cleverly told, but there was in it something that I do not understand. Here it is:

John Garfield said that he went out to Hollywood in 1938. So he was asked by Congressman Velde:

"When did you first come to this realization that there was a Communist party in Hollywood?"

"Mr. Garfield. As I said before, when I quit the Wallace thing

I felt he was being captured by a group of Communists . . .

"Mr. Velde. You didn't know before that time that there was a Communist party organization in Hollywood?"

"Mr. Garfield. I did not.

"Mr. Velde. That was approximately what date that you decided there was a Communist movement in Hollywood?"

"Mr. Garfield. Late 1947 or 1948."

How could any man be in Hollywood, be situated there, live there, read the newspapers and not know that there was a Communist movement in Hollywood between 1938 and 1948? I should like to know how the whole history of those 10 years could be missed by John Garfield or by anyone else who can read.

Mr. Velde was also surprised. He asked:

"Do you want to go on record as saying you had no knowledge whatsoever of any Communist party movement in Hollywood until the time you broke with the Wallace party?"

"Mr. Garfield. Absolutely and positively."

So Congressman Jackson got into it and this colloquy occurred:

"Mr. Jackson. Mr. Garfield, I am still afraid that I am not entirely convinced of the accuracy of your testimony or the measure of cooperation you are giving this committee. You have stated your contention that you did not know, during the period of time you were in New York and affiliated with the Group Theater, which for all its artistry was pretty well shot through with the philosophy of Communism."

"Mr. Garfield. That is not true.

"Mr. Jackson. That is a matter of opinion. You contend that during all of that time in New York you did not know a Communist?"

"Mr. Garfield. That is right.

"Mr. Jackson. And you contend that during the seven and one-half years or more that you were in Hollywood and in close contact with a situation in which a number of Communist cells were operating on a week-to-week basis, with electricians, actors and every class represented, that during the entire period of time you were in Hollywood you did not know of your own personal knowledge a member of the Communist party?"

"Mr. Garfield. That is absolutely correct, because I was not a party member or associated in any shape, way or form.

"Mr. Jackson. During that period it might interest you to know attempts were made to recruit me into the Communist party, and I was making $32.50 a week.

"Mr. Garfield. They certainly stayed away from me, sir."

I do not say that Mr. Garfield is or is not a Communist. I do not know and I am not called to sit in judgment. Nor do I question the veracity of his statements. Nor can he assuage my doubts that any man who lives in cities like New York or Hollywood, who moves in intellectual circles, who gives evidence of being literate and intelligent, could possibly live between the years 1938 and 1948 and not know anything at all about a Communist movement in Hollywood. Maybe it is possible, but as Mr. Jackson said, I am not convinced. Congressman Jackson said:

"I do say that for one who is as intelligent and as well qualified as this witness has proven himself to be, it shows a naive or unintelligent approach to this problem for him to contend that he could have lived with this activity ten, eleven or fifteen years and not know more about it than he acknowledges."

It just does not ring the bell.

Washington Report

By Fulton Lewis Jr.

Washington — Of would-be Hoovers: Liberals, left-wingers, assorted democrats and a brace of peephole journalists in Washington had a new hero. He is Edward Morgan, chief of the enforcement division of the Office of Price Stabilization.

Envisioning himself as a sort of junior J. Edgar Hoover, Morgan is playing the role of OPS Director Michael DiSalle's Dick Tracy to the hilt. He has the job of running down price gougers, although after two months in office little other than rumors and predictions of pending arrests has materialized.

Morgan is best remembered in Washington as the man who mixed the whitewash used by the Senate subcommittee that "investigated" Senator Joseph R. McCarthy's charges of Communists in the State department. He is a short-time ex-FBI agent who actually believes it when told that as a good Democrat he someday may replace Hoover as FBI director.

About the only comparison to this misfortune would be if President Truman had replaced Gen. Douglas MacArthur with Gen. Harry Vaughan. And public reaction would be as loud and long.

Morgan came up with a cute gimmick the other day that explains how seriously this junior G-man regards himself. He wrote letters to FBI police academy graduates pointing out the virtues of playing economic cops and robbers in Washington under his direction.

The FBI police academy is an advanced training school in crime detection, including subversive activities, which is popular with police officials and county sheriffs.

The county sheriffs I talked to said Morgan indicated that the success of the nation's defense program depends on the effectiveness of the OPS enforcement division, hence he was trying to hire city and county officials. Instead of being flattered by the attention, most of the sheriffs considered their police duties now, and specially in the event of war, of more importance than chasing butchers around the block—Morgan notwithstanding.

Of oyster forks:—As reported herein, the Navy recently admitted having 11,000,000 dozen oyster forks on hand, which it would gladly trade for one small sea destroyer or anything else useable. The story stirred up a reader reaction that held it impossible for there to be that many oyster forks, and so it must be a joke. Well, it isn't. The Navy has them left over from World War Two. How or why they acquired them is anybody's guess. But I've got an answer on how they can be used.

Out in Seattle, Washington, the National Fruit Canning company is working overtime on a Defense department order for 30,000,000 one and one-half ounce tins of jam for the Armed services. The jam is being canned in six delicious varieties—peach, apricot, grape, strawberry, raspberry, and blackberry. The tins are about a half inch thick and about two and one-half times the size of a silver dollar in diameter. The tins of jam will be packed in field ration kits for American fighting men overseas or on training exercises.

In all, six jam companies are canning fruit in this fashion for the military, so 30,000,000 cans is a low figure for the total order from Washington. Just how the average GI is going to pry open the tin to get at the bunc-and-a-half of jam to spread on his hardtack is one of those things left to the soldier to decide. But the sharp prongs of an oyster fork might be just the thing. The Navy would be glad to pass them along to the Army—all 11,000,000 dozen of them.

It might surprise the average GI to find an oyster fork attached to a sawed-off can of jam, but not for long. He'd punch out the lid—which would be better than

Looking at Life

By Erich Brandeis

Brandeis

An amazing confession of political petrification was uttered in an interview by Sir Gladwyn Jebb, British delegate to the United Nations. "We have recognized the Chinese Communist government," he said, "just as we recognize the moon, because it exists."

This statement is a fitting epitaph to the Britain whose history has been a series of conquests—some heroic, some piratical, but conquests just the same.

What a defeatist philosophy!

If it exists we have to deal with it, says Sir Gladwyn.

By the same token, if crime exists, don't let us stamp it out. Let us MAKE DEALS with it.

That is exactly the thinking of a Frank Costello who believes that the only way to reduce gambling is to legalize it.

That is the theory of those who claim that the dope evil can be controlled by imposing higher taxes on the importation of the poison.

And that, I am sorry to say, is also the doctrine of those who think (and have found out) that the best way to deal with our present government is by bribing the crooks in it.

Unfortunately this idea of putting up with an evil "because it exists," prevails not only in Britain but in many official circles in our own country.

And there is altogether too much of it in our own personal lives.

That is defeatism. That is cowardice. That is un-American.

You hear it everywhere: "What can I do?"

Only a couple of days ago I sat in my barber chair, having my hair cut.

Every chair in that shop was occupied. Several men were waiting their turn.

My barber complained about the fact that our local taxes would go up again. A meeting of the Finance Board was to be held in a few days.

"Are you going to that meeting?" I asked.

"No," he said. "What can I do about it?"

I told him what he could do about it. All day long, I told him, people were coming in to that shop of his. All day long he talked to them. Why not talk about what gripped him and most of us?

He is a GOOD talker. He belongs to the Rotary, The Kiwanis, the Chamber of Commerce and several other clubs.

In the next chair to me sat the local hardware man. He, too, sees people all day long. He, too, is respected and liked.

Waiting for his turn was my physician. Whenever I go to his office I have to wait an hour to see him. When he gets through with me, he talks about fishing, about flowers, about this and that. Why not talk to me and his other patients about what's wrong with our country and how to right it?

That's the way to do it, I told the barber. Make your shop a perpetual Town Meeting.

Talk about the things that require ACTION!

The moon, Sir Gladwyn, is a lovely, silvery, cool, romantic planet. But it disappears from sight when the burning SUN comes out!

Farewell To Cooking Programs

Long - missing saloon patrons are back. Taverns are getting a trade that disappeared last October. In many homes where there is a male around the house, the living room is again getting a rumpling it hasn't known all winter. Baseball is back in full swing and millions of evening listeners are back on the afternoon hitch. The immediate proof is the disappearance between 1 and 4:30 p. m. of numerous October-to-April entertainers aimed mostly at the women's and misses' trade. On our video, the drone of "Then add the whites of two eggs" has given way to a sturdy "Sock it into the stands, Joe!" We get a dozen shouts of "What a catch! . . . It saved a couple runs" to one "And now let's see the right way to make a halibut patty for four people. First you take two cups of flour . . ."

Uncle Phidias, who is retired and hangs around the house a lot, says the casualties among the cooking - recipe programs has been terrific. Semipro panels and winter - league comics have been hard hit, too. "I got so used to cooking programs," says Phidias, "that when I tuned in and saw a guy streaking around the bases, my first thought was that it must be Lydia Polzans in male disguise on a rush trip for two drops of vanilla and a jigger of cream."

"No kidding, when I saw a male with a ball bat on my screen in midafternoon instead of a female with a frying pan, an egg-beater, a bowl of chopped nuts and some parsnips, I was flabbergasted. Even now in the third week of baseball it's hard to get used to things. Only yesterday afternoon I tuned into a cooking program by Arabella Somebody. She was standing there looking at a table full of cutlets, bread crumbs, parsley and tea biscuits as if she didn't know just what to do. I yelled for her to try a hook slide into second base."

Cafes report new gusto in the afternoon hours. They have been pretty dull all winter, as few saloon patrons nuzzling a beer want to know how to bake a fruitcake or prepare cauliflower. But with the first cry of "Play ball!" the fans have come galloping back to saloon and tavern for a long telecast and a short beer. Saloons are now audible a block away all afternoon.

Taxicabs have been fairly quiet all winter except for the period when every driver was curious to hear by radio whether Costello would hunt or take a full swing and whether Erickson had lost his speed on the bases. But with the debut of baseball they have the sets wide open in full summer form. Small cabs are reported around, but all the ones we have seen have been the big ones with room for four passengers and three ball games.

It is in the home, however, where the big switch in afternoon radio and video programs is most marked. If the wife isn't a ball fan she is in a bad way just now. If she wants to know how to make apple fritters a la Waldorf she has to depend on the cookbook or memory. No use expecting anything from Joe Di Maggio, Peeewe Reese, Mickey Mantle or any of that crowd.

Chamber Of Commerce Adds 92 New Memberships To Rolls

C Of C Closes First Phase Of Campaign

First report meeting of the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce membership campaign yesterday produced 92 new membership units from 50 firms representing the entire Pocono Mountains region.

Beamed at obtaining nothing but new membership units—all current memberships are renewable with issuance of notices—the campaign has already produced sufficient new memberships to increase firm representation to 350 and to send total units up to 600.

The membership also includes 173 regional hotels and boarding houses scattered over the Pocono Mountains Vacation Bureau and Chamber of Commerce service region ranging from Lake Wallenpaupack to Blairstown, N. J. and from White Haven, Pa. to Milford, Pike county.

New units of membership reported yesterday included several Pocono Mountains region firms such as Central garage, Pocono Lake; Mick's garage and Hilgert's garage, Barrett township.

H. G. Sanborn, Jr., campaign chairman, noted that more than $600,000 a year is being spent to publicize and promote the Pocono region. These expenditures are engendered as the result of Chamber of Commerce efforts and come from either direct or indirect sources created by the Chamber and Vacation Bureau.

Mr. Sanborn emphasized that the people who reap the benefits of this promotion down to the small merchant have only the Chamber of Commerce membership available to give them the means of participating in this work.

The campaign will end next Monday at noon. First award phase of the membership "gold rush" concluded at noon yesterday with these producers of three or more memberships being awarded hats: Les Abelfoff, Frank Michaels, Warren Mikels, Gerald Anderson, Neldon Remy, Ted Henning, Leon Koster, Burton George, I. G. Mick, J. Albert Groner, George Graff, Jim Parrish, Dick Altomose, Gilbert Smrz.

Mr. Anderson is currently in the lead for the first award of a Florida vacation at Tides hotel, St. Petersburg, with $100 added toward traveling expenses. He has produced 20 memberships.

The team of Parrish, Altomose and Smrz are leading with 25 new units.

A second award for top producers will be four days in New York City including hotel, dinner and show.

In addition to the printing and distribution of 30,000 booklets, a new Pocono Mountains regional publicity map, numbering 20,000 copies will be ready for distribution at the end of this month.

Police Identify Two Drivers

Bartonville — Drivers of two cars, which collided at the intersection of Routes 611 and 12 here shortly before 10 p. m. Sunday, were identified yesterday by Stroudsburg State police.

David Abraham, 20, of Brooklyn, N. Y., was driving a 1951 sedan northward on Route 611 when it was in collision with a 1932 light model vehicle owned and operated by Lee F. Moyer, 45, of Weissport, Carbon county.

Charles Arner, 42, of Palmerton, a passenger in Moyer's car, was injured and was treated at Monroe County General hospital for abrasions of the scalp, shoulder and hands, and also for a possible nerve injury to his right arm.

The northbound car, owned by Esther P. Spitzer, of New York, N. Y., was smashed on the right side and at the right front. Damage was estimated at $400.

Damages to the older Moyer vehicle were set at $100. Pfc. Peter E. Sabinsky and Edward T. Beneski investigated.

REUNITED—Miss Natalina Rovito was reunited with her brother, Gilbert Rovito, this week after a separation which spanned 21 years. Miss Rovito arrived in the States Saturday from her home in Italy. She and her brother are shown examining a bedspread which she made. Miss Rovito will assist her brother in his tailoring business.

Miss Rovito Comes To U.S. To Live With Brother She Hadn't Seen In 21 Years

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Rovito, of 222 Lee Ave., Stroudsburg, went to New York City over the weekend.

At the docks they approached a large ocean liner that had just docked from Italy. They looked about apprehensively for a young girl whose picture they had.

Through the cooperation of Travelers Aid society, they successfully located the girl they were looking for.

She is Miss Natalina Rovito, 23-year-old sister of Mr. Rovito. Identification was difficult; the small photograph was their only clue.

The last time brother and sister met was in their home along the Mediterranean sea. At that time Miss Rovito was only two years old.

While getting acquainted again, they toured New York City, where Miss Rovito saw her first combination American movie and stage play.

She will make her home with the Rovitos on Lee Ave. and assist

Mr. Rovito in his tailoring business.

Miss Rovito has two other sisters and a brother in Italy. All the girls are adept at all types of handwork and dressmaking; the brother teaches school.

Both Mr. Rovito, who was born in Argentina, and his sister, who was born in Italy, are naturalized American citizens. Their father was an American citizen and a former State trooper stationed at Fortville.

Dr. J. E. Arnold, Chiropractor, will be out of town May 11th and 12th.—Adv.

Clubs To Send 40 Children To S. A. Camp

Monroe County Federation of Clubs decided last night to be responsible for sending a minimum of 40 underprivileged at the Salvation Army Summer camp for children.

It will cost a minimum of $480 to finance the board of the children who are exposed to a carefully planned program of recreation, craft work and excellent food.

Federation delegates decided they will appeal to the membership of their respective organizations for donations. Envelopes will be prepared and passed among members urging them to give a minimum of one dollar to keep one child in camp one day.

The children will include 20 of the older age group, 20 Sunbeams and young boys.

Major May Adam, commandant of the Salvation Army, appealed for the assistance. She noted that the federation had financed summer camp trips for underprivileged youngsters last year.

Noting that increased cost of living has also been reflected in cost of maintaining a youngster in camp, Major Adam said a $180 fund would be of tremendous help in carrying out the camp project.

Action by the delegates on the fund raising plans was unanimous.

Fred Hoffman, president, conducted last night's meeting in the Moose home, East Stroudsburg. Reports were filed by George W. Price, Ernest Ridgeway and Edward C. Knob on the recent state federation convention at Pittsburgh. Mr. Price represented the local federation, Mr. Ridgeway the Eagles and Mr. Knob the CLU Social club.

Famed Choral Group Gives Fine Concert

The mixed chorus of the University of Tulsa last night won the hearts of a large audience in East Stroudsburg State Teachers College auditorium where they presented a program under sponsorship of the Stroudsburg Rotary club.

Proceeds of the affair will be devoted to the Rotary charity fund. The famous choral group, directed by Arthur D. Westwood, formerly with Fred Waring's Pennsylvanians, was brought to Stroudsburg through the cooperative effort of Fred and Tom Waring and other members of Waring organization.

Tom Waring was a guest artist, acting as narrator for some numbers and piano soloist.

The program, divided into two parts, consisted of 20 selections, including a hilarious Push-Button Radio vs. Television act.

Fifty members of the mixed chorus were enthusiastically received with every number.

Court Receives Motion To Set Aside Ruling Which Bars Attorney From Practicing Here

A motion to set aside a ruling of the Monroe county bar examiners on the grounds that the local professional requirement has been superseded by a Pennsylvania Supreme court rule was heard yesterday in Monroe county court before President Judge Fred W. Davis and Associate Judges Homer A. Shupp and Theodore S. Metzgar.

The motion was presented in oral form by Atty. Lawrence H. Eldridge, Philadelphia attorney who is representing Max L. Cohen, a member of the Philadelphia county bar and the bar of the Pennsylvania Supreme court.

Cohen last October had requested admission to the Monroe county bar and permission to practice here, but his request was denied on the grounds that he failed to comply with a Monroe county rule which stipulates that attorneys coming here to practice must first practice two years in the county in which they were originally admitted to the bar.

In his oral petition yesterday, Attorney Eldridge contended that this particular local rule is contrary to Supreme court rule 12 and one-half.

He further stated that if there are no blemishes on the petitioner's record, and he added that there are none, the examiners should be restrained from holding up Cohen's admission further.

He said his client has been a resident of Stroudsburg since September 1950, that his wife is employed at Monroe County General hospital here, and that he deserves the right to practice in the county which he plans to hold as his home county and in which he intends to establish his principal office.

Answering for the bar examiners, Atty. Harold C. Edwards, president of the Monroe County Bar association, declared that the county rule has always been upheld without question. He further disputed Attorney Eldridge's contention concerning the Supreme court rule and claimed that the latter has no bearing on the situation here.

Advised by the court that it's been the custom here to present written rather than oral petitions, Eldridge assured the court that he will forward the formal petition and a brief within 48 hours.

In a non-support hearing against Clyde Price, Barrett township tavern owner, the court concurred with Mr. Price's statement that he has been continuously supporting his wife and children.

In an order by the court, Price was directed to pay $50 per week to his wife, Ann Elizabeth Price, for her support and the support of their three children. Testimony before the court had disclosed that as the amount which he has been paying his wife.

In addition, he was ordered to pay taxes, insurance and water rent on their dwelling, as well as oil bills for winter heating.

After District Attorney Detlef A. Hansen presented the case, Atty. C. Edward DePuy appeared as counsel for Mrs. Price while Atty. Forrest J. Mervine represented the defendant.

In another non-support matter, the court ordered Samuel Van-Auken, of 245 Willow St., East Stroudsburg, to pay the costs of prosecution and the amount of $17 per month toward the support of an aged parent. Van-Auken was represented by Atty. Elmer D. Christine.

It's the only new-type engine in any "new car"!

Chrysler FirePower — Finest engine ever put in an automobile

180 HORSEPOWER

The new Chrysler Hemispherical Combustion Chamber, heart of the finest car engine built today. In this dome-topped area, you see the only ideal combustion chamber . . . the only way to develop full combustion, full compression, full work and value from every drop of fuel!

With so many engines claiming newness . . . how can we call FirePower the only new type engine today? The answer's very simple, and one you ought to know before you invest in a car. The fact is that engine "improvements" happen every year . . . but a basically new motor car engine is a very rare thing. And FirePower is the most basic new development since Chrysler introduced high-compression in 1924!

To get to the heart of the matter, just go to the heart of the engine . . . the combustion chamber where the spark fires gas into power. Here Chrysler brings you something no car has had till now . . . a Hemispherical combustion chamber . . . the only perfect and ideal combustion chamber in any passenger car. Here the same amount of gasoline delivers you far more energy than it could in any other car. What this means to the man at FirePower's wheel is impossible to tell you till you take that wheel yourself. FirePower's 180 horsepower can outperform any other engine on the road, even on regular grade gas.

Remember, too, that Chrysler now offers the wondrous road-ease of new Oriflow shock absorbers with twice the shock-absorbing power of any others . . . and the exclusive safety and delight of Hydrguide power steering* which takes four-fifths of the work out of steering! You can learn for yourself how Chrysler has changed your motoring life by seeing your Chrysler dealer now!

Club Sponsors Landscaping

Newfoundland — A landscaping program at the Greene-Dreher school, sponsored by the Newfoundland Rotary club, was completed last week, according to an announcement by Fred Hart, chairman of the committee in charge. Over 125 evergreens were planted by Rotarians and the vocational agriculture classes at the school, Hart said. Cost of the project was shared by the Rotary club, the Greene-Dreher Fair association and the board of education, he added.

Committee representing the Rotary club included Hart, F. Carroll Krautter and Dr. Frank Uridel. Carroll Fetherman, vocational agriculture instructor at the school, was in charge of the student helpers.

Robbery Case Against Trio Nolle Prossed

A case charging three New Jersey youths with robbery with accomplice was nolle prossed by President Judge Fred W. Davis here yesterday, after District Attorney Detleff A. Hansen moved that such action be taken.

The defendants in the action, James Vogt and Thomas Nodes, of the Newark, N.J., area, and Frank Marko, of Ventnor, N.J., were charged with allegedly beating and robbing Charles Stevens, a hitchhiking merchant seaman, at Saylorsburg last July 30.

At the time, Stevens, then a resident of Brooklyn, N.Y., told Brodheads State police that he was forced out of the car and robbed of articles of clothing and his wallet which contained a small amount of money. The incident took place, Stevens averred, near the Diamond inn at an early morning hour, after the three had picked him up as he was hitchhiking out of Easton.

Stevens made one more trip back to this region to recover his wallet, after the three were arrested in Wilkes-Barre and then committed to Monroe county jail.

Vogt and Nodes were released on bail, but Marko was held in default until last December when he was freed. At that time, Stevens could not be located nor advised to come here as prosecutor in the case against the three.

In the move to nolle pross yesterday, the district attorney stated that continued efforts by State and New York police have failed to locate the seaman who preferred the charges.

In a Department of Public Assistance case brought to a conclusion yesterday, George Oney, of Tobyhanna, was ordered to pay the costs of prosecution and to make restitution of $250 he accepted under illegal conditions in weekly installments of not less than $5.

When questioned by the court, Oney stated that he's now working for $50 per week, that he has a wife and two children, and that he pays $10 per month rent for his dwelling.

The last bit of information brought a smile from Judge Davis, who said he was glad to hear that accommodations at such reasonable rates are still available in Monroe county.

FINAL MEETING OF THE COUNTY branch of Pennsylvania State Education association was held last night at Chestnuthill inn. Guests and those taking part in the program are (first row) Mrs. Elsie LaBar, James L. Butz, Mrs. Addie Weidman, who received certificates for 25 years' teaching service, Theodore E. Miller and Miss Vivian Huffman, who also received the certificates, were not present for the picture. In the second row are Edward E. Bosman, C. Willis Dunlap, Dr. F. W. Maroney, guest speaker; Walter H. Sebring, Joseph M. Kulick, John C. Litts.

Stanley Deiter, of Monroe St., who also pleaded guilty to obtaining DPA funds through fraudulent means, was not sentenced yesterday. His sentence was deferred until the first Monday of September, but the court suggested that he make restitution promptly, adding that there is little sympathy for those who fail to report when they get work and should be taken off the relief rolls.

Irvin L. Allegar Honored At Rites

Shawnee-on-Delaware —Funeral services for Irvin L. Allegar, 77, who died Friday, were held yesterday at the Shawnee Presbyterian church with Rev. Robert M. Bradburn, the pastor, officiating.

Interment was made in the adjacent Shawnee church cemetery. Austin Kautz, Frank Kober, Omar Michaels, Clyde Heller, Walter LaBar and Clarence Treible were the pallbearers. Lanterman funeral home, East Stroudsburg, was in charge of arrangements.

County PSEA Elects Slate Of Officers Headed By Roan

Bernard W. Roan, Barrett High school English teacher, last night was elected president of the Monroe county branch of Pennsylvania State Education association.

Other educators elected during the final meeting for the school year held at Chestnuthill inn were Mrs. Gladys Seese, Pocono township school, first vice president; Mrs. Sarah Hafler, Chestnuthill township school, second vice president.

The secretary-treasurer will be appointed by the president from his own school system.

Miss Ruth Black, East Stroudsburg High school commercial teacher, and Walter H. Sebring, assistant county superintendent of schools, were appointed auditors.

Appreciation certificates, acknowledging 25 years of service in the educational field, were presented by Superintendent John C. Litts to Mrs. Addie Weidman, Stroud township's Analomink school; James L. Butz, principal of Jackson township school; Miss Vivian Huffman, East Stroudsburg Elementary school; Theodore E. Miller, principal of East Stroudsburg Junior High school.

Guest speaker was F. W. Maroney, dean of Brooklyn College. He asserted the purpose of education is to improve social relations, self-expression, create critical thinking and worthwhile activities in life.

Joseph M. Kulick, outgoing president of the organization, was in charge of the meeting.

Mexican Labor Measure Passes

Washington (AP)—Legislation authorizing the government to recruit Mexicans for seasonal work on U. S. farms was approved yesterday by the Senate.

The measure was passed by voice vote with only a scattering of "noes." It now goes to the House.

Identity Of Helpful Nurse Made Known

Brodheads State police of the Brodheads State police last night identified the nurse who rendered invaluable assistance at the scene of a head-on collision at Fern Ridge Sunday morning.

The nurse administered aid to Frank Dally, 53, of Blakeslee; John Cusick, 57, of Blytheburn, Luzerne county, and Cusick's wife, Bridget, 51, after the Dally and Cusick cars were demolished in a terrific collision.

Pfc. Joseph Mekuta, investigating officer, said the nurse learned from newspapers and radio stories that Brodheads State troopers were anxious to communicate with her. She telephoned the substation yesterday, he said, and identified herself as Mary Clair Hendler, of 21 W. Grandview Ave., Kingston, Pa.

Miss Hendler, who is a nurse at Mercy hospital in Wilkes-Barre, assisted Dally and the Cusicks after they had been removed from the wrecked machines by a truck driver employed by a Lehigh Valley dairy.

Police said the identity of the trucker, who helped Robert Knorr extinguish the fire in the Cusick car and forced open a door, has not been completely established, although it's been learned that he lives in Mauch Chunk.

Condition of the three victims was reported as "good" at the General hospital late last night.

Hull Critically Ill At Bethesda

Washington (AP)—Former Secretary of State Cordell Hull is in precarious condition at the Naval Medical center at nearby Bethesda, Md.

He was admitted to the hospital on Saturday.

Hull is nearly 80 years of age. He has been put on the critical list, hospital officials said.

SPALDING
Butter Krust

Real
Old Fashioned
Flavor

Remember when? . . . in the early 1900's the Merry Widow Waltz shared honors with "The Blue Danube" . . . the two-step was a popular number . . . A few years later an impudent dance called "Ragtime" monopolized the floor . . . the Turkey Trot, the Grizzly Bear and the Bunny Hug were accepted by society!

And as a new tempo swept the nation, changes were taking place in the home. Housewives put away their baking equipment for they could buy bakers bread, consistently better and more flavorful than their own. A leading loaf of this day was Spaulding Butter Krust Bread, a golden-crusted loaf filled with old-fashioned goodness.

Now, this same wonderful Butter Krust loaf of grandmother's time is back again! You can enjoy the same hearty, wheaty flavor, the firm, even slices and the delicate home-like bread taste that made the Spaulding name famous. Try it for your next meal. Look for Spaulding Butter Krust Bread in the red and yellow wrapper at your grocers.

SPALDING Butter Krust

P. S. To young housewives: Ask mother and dad about Spaulding Butter Krust Bread.

Here is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day. It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name. If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3. The result is your key number. Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you. Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Blair

Betty Jean Warner Bride Of Edward T. Blair Here

Candlelight shone on apple-blossoms and dogwood which banked the Zion Evangelical and Reformed church, Stroudsburg, last night for the Springtime wedding of Miss Betty Jean Warner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Warner, of 19 Lenox St., Stroudsburg to Edward T. Blair, son of Mrs. John L. Blair, of 205 N. Sixth St., Stroudsburg, at 7:30.

Rev. Frank H. Blatt performed the ceremony in the presence of many of their friends. The altar vases were filled with white snapdragons and Mrs. Herbert Yutz was soloist, singing "O Perfect Love" and "Always." Mrs. Fred Quig, organist, played "Ich Liebe Dich" and "Through the Years" as well as the traditional wedding marches.

The bride who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white organza eyelet in a ballerina length over blue tulle, with a daisy halo, holding her veil. She carried a colonial bouquet.

Miss Susan Warner was maid-of-honor and wore pink organza in a ballerina length with a head-dress of pink carnations, and she also carried a colonial bouquet.

Harold J. Reese, of Lansford, was the best man and the ushers were John D. Blair and Earl Warner.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue dress with navy blue and white accessories, and the bridegroom's mother wore a navy blue dress with tulle trim and white accessories.

A reception was held following the ceremony at the Gap View Inn, where the stone fireplace filled with dogwood formed the background for the reception line. Table decorations were of iris and apple blossoms.

For traveling, the bride wore a gray suit with white hat and white accessories.

They are both graduates of Stroudsburg High school. Mr. Blair also attended Muhlenberg College and Lafayette College, and was employed at the Hamilton Watch Co. in Lancaster before entering the service. He is with the 43rd Signal Co., 43rd Inf. Division, stationed at Camp Pickett, Va. Mrs. Blair is employed in the office of Rinker and Kiefer architects.

Board Pays Tribute To Mrs. Martin

The Indian Queen hotel was the scene of the final executive board meeting of the Stroudsburg Woman's club at which time a luncheon was given in honor of Mrs. Eugene H. Martin who is concluding her term of office as president of the club.

Apple blossoms and lilacs were used as decorations for the centerpiece and the place cards. On behalf of the board, Mrs. Foster S. Minnich, immediate past president, presented the guest of honor with a monogrammed silver tray.

At the meeting which followed the luncheon, reports were given by the three vice presidents of the club—Mrs. George T. Robinson, Mrs. Walter H. Caulfield and Mrs. Parke Kunkle.

Plans were presented for the afternoon meeting on May 14 at the Stroud Community house. At this time, books giving a history club year by a committee will be presented and ready for distribution. Helen Stevenson West, instructor in stagecraft and historic costume of the Philadelphia Museum and School of Industrial Arts, will be the featured speaker.

Reports were given by the departmental chairmen covering the year's work. Club members who are dressing dolls for the Salvation Army are asked to bring their dolls to the May 14 meeting. Miss Miriam Lark, Mrs. Henry Tucker and Mrs. Clyde Pyle are in charge of this service project.

Of especial interest to the board were the reports given by the club's delegates, Mrs. George T. Robinson and Mrs. Frank French, in which they gave highlights from the recent State convention of Federated clubs which they attended in York, Pa.

Mrs. Robinson emphasized the messages of the convention's outstanding speakers and Mrs. French spoke of the resolutions which were adopted and those defeated.

The convention was a convocation of 1400 women from Federated clubs from all parts of Pennsylvania. The Stroudsburg Woman's club was honored by receiving two awards, honorable mention in fine arts and honorable mention in "News and Views" as shown in scrap and log books of the club's publicity department. Club chairmen in these departments are Mrs. Elwood Grant, fine arts; Mrs. Hugh Brannum, scrap book; Miss Aimee Girard, log book and Mrs. Horace Walters, publicity.

After the service, St. Mary's Guild served refreshments to the children, parents and friends.

GOP Contest Arouses Nat'l Interest

A large attendance is expected for the meeting of the Monroe council of Republican Women on Wednesday at the YMCA, when Mrs. Russell Custard, president, will report on plans for the forthcoming Teen-age essay contest and banquet in June when Mr. and Miss Republican will be crowned.

The following telegram, from General MacArthur was received in reply to the Council's invitation to the June Day party. "Thanks and deepest appreciation for your cordial invitation but the pressure of my commitments makes it impossible for me to send you an acceptance, at this time, but realizing the importance to your plans of definiteness in your arrangements, I therefore send my deep regrets and cordial good wishes. General of the Army MacArthur, N. Y."

Also a reply to Mrs. Custard's announcement was received from Guy George Gabrielson, of Washington, D. C., chairman of the Republican National committee. He writes as follows. "Dear Mrs. Custard: Thank you very much for forwarding a copy of the clipping entitled 'Teen-agers to be Initiated into Politics by GOP Women.' I have read its contents with great interest and would appreciate it greatly if you would send us a copy of the winning contest. The idea is splendid."

University Women Close Year With Supper And Dramatics

The final meeting of the local branch of the American Association of University Women was a festive one last night with a supper at the Stroud Community House preceding the meeting.

Individual hostesses were in charge of tables for four and had decorated the tables with fresh spring flowers. Pink tulips formed the centerpiece for the buffet table.

Dr. Veva Dean presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. Henry Slaboski, and the entertainment was presented by the drama group under the direction of Mrs. Myrtle Denning, and featured Ada Mae Heenan, Patty Coe, Edna Colonius, Jean Bossler, Jean Kiefer and Mary Paul.

Final reports were given by the chairmen of the standing committees: The School for Parents in two sessions sponsored by the education committee, Mrs. David Mazer and Miss Lois Anderson, co-chairmen; plans for a picnic of the International Relations study group at the Wild Animal Farm, May 24, by Mrs. Claude Leister, chairman; a report of the social studies meeting addressed by Miss Eloise Bryan, psychologist, by Dr. Ruth Kistler; report of legislative meetings on local taxes and local consumer credit, by Mrs. Harold C. Edwards; art committee, Dr. Madelon Powers; Fellowship and plans for the Book Fair, Mrs. Arthur Ifft, and hospitality, Mrs. Jack Lantz, chairman of the hostess committee.

Dr. Dean then presented the slate of officers for the coming year with Mrs. Henry Slaboski, president; Dr. Dean, first vice president; Mrs. Roger Dunning, second vice president; Mrs. Jose Piza, recording secretary; Mrs. H. G. Sanborn III, corresponding secretary; Miss Mary Paul, treasurer; Mrs. Arthur Ifft, advisor to the board.

Miss Julia Sieg gave the report of the auditing committee. Rummage Sale did and I am sure the prize trip to Harrisburg for the winning girl and boy will prove the inducement to attract contestants. This is a program which I would like to see sponsored by other Women's Republican Clubs throughout the country, and I am wondering if you have a blue print of your project available which I may bring to the attention of Mrs. Joseph R. Farrington, President of the National Federation of Women's Republican Clubs. It is a program which the young Republicans might also consider. Looking forward to hearing from you I remain,

"Sincerely yours, Guy George Gabrielson"

Tim Everitt Takes Office In Area Elks

A. F. (Tim) Everitt Jr., past exalted ruler of Lehigh Lodge, 1234, BPO Elks, was elected and installed president of the Northeast Pennsylvania association at the meeting at the Lehigh Lodge home Sunday afternoon.

At McCabe, of Easton lodge, a past district deputy grand exalted ruler, was in charge of the ceremony in which A. F. Everitt Sr., Stroudsburg, father of the new president, and Ben F. Everitt, Easton, his brother, both past exalted rulers, were privileged to participate.

The other officers inducted were: Vice president, John A. Dunn, Wilkes-Barre; secretary, Wilbur G. Warner, Lehigh Lodge; Joseph Dunleavy, Scranton; also these appointed officers, chaplain, William Williams, Lansford; Sgt.-at-arms, J. B. Veneski, Shenandoah; Tyler, Ben Everitt, Easton, and inner guard, James Shanon, Sayre.

The meeting was attended by more than 200 representatives; also approximately 100 ladies.

Sayre was selected for the next quarterly meeting, August 12 with Mt. Carmel requesting that of November.

All but some four lodges among the 19 included in the district showed gains, present membership being 10,885.

Mr. McCabe paid tribute to the fine public service of Secretary Warner, a past state president and district deputy in the Elks, in addition to his work in the American Legion and the new hospital at Lehigh. He was honored by being elected honorary president of the district.

Leo Malarky, Mt. Carmel, retiring president, expressed his appreciation of cooperation given him and advancements during his term and offered a toast to the memory of John Bell, of Easton, trustee of the state association, who died recently.

The new president, Mr. Everitt, outlined objectives for his term.

The ladies were entertained during the meeting with motion pictures and at dinner later.

In attendance from Stroudsburg were Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Lauffer, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Ruff, A. F. Everitt, and daughter, Frances and Miss Margaret Bryson, Tannersville, and Elmer E. Shade and L. W. Pipher.

Jointure Of School Boards Of Three Townships Aired At Preliminary Meeting

Newfoundland—Boards of education of Greene, Dreher and Sterling townships met at the school here to discuss the possibility of adding the latter township to the present jointure of the two former districts.

This was the first of a series of preliminary meetings to talk over the proposed consolidation, Homer Gilpin, president of the Greene-Dreher joint board, pointed out. A move of this nature presents many problems and will require much study before a workable agreement can be reached, he added.

It was determined, however, that Sterling township, whose student population now attends the local school on a tuition basis, would benefit financially from the jointure under present school regulations.

The boards studied copies of agreements now in effect in jointures similar to the proposed local setup. A committee consisting of the secretaries of the three boards, Edward S. Parsons (Greene), Robert Staph (Dreher) and Dr. Robert Rochfort (Sterling) was appointed to obtain legal advice relative to such a move.

The Greene-Dreher jointure was formed in 1925 and was one of the first in the State of Pennsylvania. It is unique in that it is made up of two townships in two counties, Greene in Pike and Dreher in Wayne.

Your Horoscope Today

By FRANCIS DRAKE

TUESDAY, MAY 8, 1951

March 21 to April 20 (Aries)—Fine configurations in your sector but there are some things to avoid. Don't take others' say so, know just what you are signing, contracting for. Otherwise day good on whole.

April 21 to May 20 (Taurus)—Devote some of day effort building for securing future. Some very receptive hours. Be sensibly careful in domestic, personal affairs, you may hurt where you don't mean to.

May 21 to June 20 (Gemini)—Good period for solid essential matters. Real estate, contracting, experiments, research, farming, renovating sponsored. Heart interests can be pleasant, it's up to you in most cases.

June 21 to July 20 (Cancer)—Excellent time for improvement in business, readjusting investments. Study angles to advance. Best you do not take on needless debts, financial obligations.

July 21 to August 20 (Leo)—The day and you may lack incentive, but you have what it needs instantly, so urge it NOW, and to good purpose. Inject extra pep to get desired results. Be cooperative, gentle.

August 21 to September 20 (Virgo)—Reasonable headway possible if you take things in stride and don't let any one or anything get you down. Most successes are from hard, long pulls, so be patient, you will achieve.

September 21 to October 20 (Libra)—Day in which ideas, schemes that tempt you to go out on the limb in spending may appear. Don't let hard-earned money slip through your fingers unwisely. Be firm checking propositions, business.

October 21 to November 20 (Scorpio)—Better indications all around than past couple of days. Financial interests, returns from past investments should show profits if properly handled. Good time for trade, science.

November 21 to December 20 (Sagittarius)—Rays in general encourage personal and outside interests; confidential issues need care. Home affairs, dealing with children, loved ones can be highly satisfactory if you try.

December 21 to January 20 (Capricorn)—Day should be a cheery pickup after the past few. Occupational duties and domestic interests under benefic stars. Give as well as take, pass along some of your good fortune.

January 21 to February 20 (Aquarius)—You have the "go" sign with all its advantages. Exercise sense and moderation, and don't let past success slow your endeavor. Romance, marriage favored now.

February 21 to March 20 (Pisces)—Should strive to be what you have been waiting for IF you are keen, ready to act sensibly prepared. Avoid useless, legal or personal entanglements and keep up courage.

YOU BORN TODAY: Are the brainy type, receptive to learning, and eager to improve. Creative, yet may easily take up the inventions and methods of others, and so better than that they become almost yours. Have great memory for detailed facts, have literary ability and could, if you choose, be an efficient gardener, designer, surgeon, physician. A natural knack for cooking, nursing a way with children. Not selfish or petty, rather enjoy seeing others have comfort.

ESSTC Turns Scranton Into Fourth Diamond Victim, 9-2

Herring Gains First Favorable Mound Verdict

East Stroudsburg State Teachers College accounted for its fourth win in seven outings yesterday with a 9-2 victory over the University of Scranton, on the Normal Hill field. It was the second straight win for the Warriors, who have now won three of their last four starts.

Bill "Lefty" Herring came up with his first pitching victory of the campaign, to go with two set-backs, as he limited the Scranton contingent to only three hits for eight and one-third innings, before a double, walk and single sent the young southpaw chucker to the bench in the ninth. Gene Talgo, fast balling right hander, came on the scene at this point and stopped the Royals without further damage.

The outcome of the contest was never in doubt as ESSTC jumped off to a 3-0 lead in the bottom of the second. The charges of Coach Ed Shay made it 4-0 in the third frame and Scranton came up with its first counter in the top of the fourth.

OUT—Bill "Lefty" Herring, ESSTC pitcher, is shown above making the putout on Joe Zinsky in the second inning of yesterday's game, after taking a toss from first baseman Art Czarnowski, who picked up the grounder. ESSTC went on to win by a 9-2 count over the University of Scranton.

More Runs

Cold winds whipping across the Normal Hill diamond failed to halt the Warriors who came up with two more tallies in the fourth, one in the sixth and another pair in the seventh.

Scranton's final tally came in the top of the eighth.

Herring retired five batters on strikes and allowed six free tickets to first base.

Doug Phillips was the only member of the winning club who failed to break into the hit column, while Lyle Krall, with a pair of singles in four trips to the plate, led the ESSTC attack.

However, the longest blow of the contest was a circuit smash by Dick Pritchard, leadoff man for the Warriors.

ESSTC has taken the measure of Kings College, Rider, Kutztown and Scranton thus far this season, while suffering setbacks at the hands of Rider, in the first meeting of the two clubs, Panzer and Wilkes College.

The Warriors return to action tomorrow, when they play at Kutztown, at 3:15 p. m.

Eagles, Patterson-Kelley Win In Monroe County Loop Play

Eagles and Patterson-Kelley came up with victories in the Monroe County Softball league last night. The Eagles shaded Tucker's Chevrolet at the East Stroudsburg Junior High school field, 8-5, while Patterson-Kelley took the measure of Union Printers, at Stroudsburg Playground, 5-1.

Jack Moring drove home four runs for the Eagles with a home run and triple, while Gail "Doc" Fegley pitched eight hit ball for the winning team.

Winning Hurler

Charley Mickey was the winning pitcher for Patterson-Kelley, while Bill Weber took the loss for Union Printers. Jim "Bunky" Smith homered for the winning aggregation in the third, with one mate aboard.

Tonight's schedule calls for Kulp's Foundry to meet Worthington Mower at Stroudsburg Playground and IAM to oppose Line Material at East Stroudsburg Junior High school. Both games are listed for 6:30.

Senators Edge Tribe, 11-10

Cleveland, (AP)—Eight Washington batters in a row singled off two Cleveland pitchers in the fourth inning last night to score five runs as the visiting Senators edged the Tribe 11 to 10 and climbed back into second place.

Larry Doby and Allie Clark led off the last half inning with homers for the Indians, but the home team's bid ended there, one short.

Vander Meer Loses

The barrage of singles—three short of the one-inning major league record the St. Louis Cardinals set in 1925—ruined Johnny (double no-hit) Vander Meer's first American league start. He was charged with the loss.

The southpaw veteran of 10 seasons with Cincinnati in the national loop was cuffed for the first five singles. Vandy then gave way to Gerald Fahr, a beanpole rookie righthander, and the Senators poked three more singles before Irv Noren, ninth man up in the inning popped to third for the first out.

Explode For Seven

Trailing 6-0 after this rally, the Tribe jumped Sandy Consuegra for seven runs in the fourth and fifth frames. Clark's double and Dale Mitchell's two-run triple were the big blows in the fourth; and Doby's three-run homer in the fifth brought southpaw Mickey Harris to the mound for Washington.

Although the Senators got five more runs for Consuegra in the victory, Lefty Dick Rozek started the fifth for Cleveland, but lasted for only two singles and Sam Dente's two-run double. Then George Zuverink took over, hit a batsman, let a run in on a wild pitch and was rapped for a two-run triple by Noren.

Another VanBuren Joins Pro Eagles

Philadelphia (AP)—Ebert Van Buren, Steve's kid brother, signed yesterday with the National Football League's Philadelphia Eagles.

Ebert, the Eagles' number one draft choice, flew into town last night and signed after a short talk with General Manager Vince McNally.

Joins Brother

Then he joined his brother, Steve, holder of nearly all the NFL ground gaining records, at Steve's home. He plans to fly back to Louisiana State to resume his classes this week.

At 25, Ebert is five years younger than Steve but plays the same—205 pounds. Both play halfback and fullback.

Special Race Shaping Up At Pimlico

by George Bowen

Baltimore, (AP)—Pimlico had half of one side lined up yesterday for its unique proposal of a showdown race May 26 between the leading horses of the Kentucky Derby and Preakness.

The probable Derby team lost one runner in Phil D. The colt came out of the Derby with a hurt leg after finishing fourth.

But spokesmen for the first and second colts, Count Turf and Royal Mustang, said they were ready to go. Emil Denmark, owner of third-place Rube promised an answer by today.

If the race shapes up with those three, Pimlico indicated it might invite Calumet Farm's fifth-place Fanfare to substitute for the injured Phil D. to make up the derby quartet.

Pimlico proposed the match race suddenly Sunday night when it discovered it was caught with its eligibles down for the $75,000 Preakness on May 19. The first five Derby colts were left out of the second number of the so-called triple crown which winds up June 16 with the Belmont Stakes.

Prize Money

Grabbing the horses by the tail, Pimlico offered to put up $50,000 if the first four from the Derby wanted to have it out with the first four from the Preakness.

Pimlico was even willing to make it eight from the Preakness, offering to split the classic into divisions if 18 or more start. Each division then would be worth $75,000, but indications were yesterday the split won't be necessary.

Trainer Sol Ruitnick of the Derby winner jumped at the challenge. "We're ready to go. We'll be glad to enter Count Turf," he said.

Sam E. Wilson, Jr., Royal Mustang's owner, was "very interested" and "very enthusiastic," Pimlico announced. The track said Wilson suggested the special race be made worth $75,000, the same as the Preakness, but that he did not insist upon it as a condition for participating. The track figures $50,000 is enough.

Pimlico already is receiving suggestions for a name for the special race. One, the Jubilee Stakes, would be in keeping with the Preakness being run for the seventy-fifth time.

As for the Preakness itself, early guesses are for a field of between ten and 15.

Among those declared out early was J. J. Colando's Uncle Miltie. The one-time favorite for the Derby has been turned out on the Point-A-View Farm at Yardley, Pa.

Baseball Meeting Listed

Roseto, (AP)—A special meeting of the Martucci-Capobianco American Legion Post junior baseball team will be held tomorrow night at 7:30, at the legion home. Players from last season and all people of the area interested in forming an American Legion team are urged to attend tomorrow night's gathering.

Williams, Hilliard High In Ashley Bowling Tournament

Ashley—Unofficial results from the doubles and singles matches of the Pennsylvania State Bowling tournament held here at the Ashley Bowl Sunday night indicate that Jerry Williams and Chet Hilliard rolled the high doubles score of 599, with handicap, among keggers from Monroe county.

Williams and Hilliard, bowling under the colors of the Eagles, are in line for a prize it is reported, although no official scores have been released.

Sunday's action was held in two shifts, one rolling at 8 and the other at 10.

Teams

Teams representing Monroe county at the affair were the Eagles, Bartonsville Hotel, CLU Heart Club, Otto's Gran View, Tanglewood and Harmon's Recreation.

Reports from the affair were spotty and nothing bordering on official was heard from the singles division.

A total of 36 keggers represented Monroe county in the event, but the only possible prize winners reported were Williams and Hilliard.

Palmerton will bring a veteran diamond contingent to town today and the Bombers will be called upon to face the southpaw slants of Bob "Willie" Ellenberger, who has won his only start this season.

Coach Jerry Stulgaitis announced last night that the Mountaineers would field almost the same lineup that has carried the bulk of the load thus far this season. Layton DeHaven will do the catching, while the infield lines up with Floyd Williams at first base, Jerry Fritz, second base; Karl Weingartner, shortstop, and Jack Newell, third base. The outfield will feature Les Slutter in left, Alden "Red" Fetherman, center and Gene Caskie, right.

East Stroudsburg's hard luck pitcher, Ray Steele, will oppose the hard hitting Nazareth club, with reliable Harold Litts behind the plate. The infield will find Jerry Rogers at first base, Jack Sommers, second base; Paul "Candy" Miller, shortstop, and Leo Dailey, third base. Larry Cramer will be in left field, Marlin "Ducky" Martz, center, and George Litts, right.

Other Games

Bangor will also be taking part in a Lehigh-Northampton League tussle today, when the Slaters play Wilson Borough, on the latter's home field, at 4 p. m. Bangor has won two of its three league starts this season.

Dick Walk or Glen Raph will probably receive the starting pitching assignment from Coach Dave Thomas.

Two contests are also on tap in the Monroe County League today, both to begin at 2 p. m. The northern division action will find Coolbaugh playing Tobyhanna Township, at Pocono Pines, while Pocono meets Chestnut Hill, at Brodheadsville, in the southern division action.

Three Chisox Dominate Race For Bat Laurels

Chicago (AP)—The first three places in the American league hit parade through Sunday's games were held by Chicago White Sox players, headed by newcomer Orestes Minoza with 400.

Official statistics credited Minoza, acquired last week from the Cleveland Indians, with 14 hits in 35 trips. Chicago's Jim Busby is second with .388 on 26 hits in 67 at bats. White Sox shortstop "Chico" Carrasquel held third spot with .342 on 27 blows in 79 ab's.

Other leaders: Jack Jensen and Phil Rizzuto, both of the New York Yankees, .333 each; Ray Coleman, St. Louis, .328; Ferris Fain, Philadelphia, .323; Jerry Coleman, New York, .322; Eddie Robinson, Chicago, .321; and Bobby Doerr, Boston, .319.

Most Hits

Carrasquel had the most hits—27, and the most two baggers—seven. Boston's Ted Williams was ahead in homers with five, while three shared the RBI leadership at 16 apiece—Coleman of the Browns, Chicago's Al Zarilla and Doerr.

Jensen led in runs, 16; Washington's Gil Coan had most triples, five; while fleet-footed Busby was the number one base stealer with nine. He got four during the week.

New York's Eddie Lopat with four straight wins and no defeats topped the pitching column. Cleveland's Early Wynn held the strike-out lead with 20.

Life of Riley

By JIM RILEY
Sports Editor

Pitching seems to be the number one topic of conversation among baseball fans of the area at this early date of the 1951 season. Thus far the pitchers, as a whole, seem to be holding a slight edge over the hitters. There have been one and two hitters galore and only Sunday Tom Foley hurled a no-hitter against Reiders, although it can never be recognized because it was a practice contest between the two Pocono Mountain league rivals. However, it was another example of outstanding early season pitching.

Last Friday Alden "Red" Fetherman hurled a one-hitter against Northampton, but as you no doubt know by this time, the red-headed right hander went down to a 2-1 defeat, with errors and passed balls turning the trick, after the Mountaineers had managed to tie the count. Fetherman turned in a masterful mound performance but was charged with his second loss of the campaign. It took Northampton one extra inning to take advantage of the breaks, but the annual big gun in the Lehigh Valley league turned the trick to account for another victory.

Fetherman, along with Ray Steele, who has hurried brilliantly for East Stroudsburg High this season, are definite additions to the Pocono A. C. roster once the present high school diamond season is completed. Both pitchers have agreed to join the local Blue Mountain league entry, although several clubs in this and surrounding areas were hopefully trying to acquire the services of the two right handed hurlers for the present campaign. The remainder of the Stroudsburg and East Stroudsburg High schools teams will undoubtedly be scattered throughout the Pocono Mountain league. Layton DeHaven, Stroudsburg, and Harold Litt, East Stroudsburg, are two of the best young catchers in Monroe county today.

DeLand, Fla., of the Florida State league, has dropped into second place, 1½ games off the pace being set by Orlando. DeLand is managed by Frank Radler, popular pilot of the Stroudsburg Poconos for the past three years. Evansville, of the Three I league, won its first five games, then promptly dropped its next five. Harry Warner, resident of Reiders and former star with the Poconos, is currently holding down first base for Evansville. Speaking of Evansville brings to mind the fact that this same club recently optioned catcher George Sentementes to Eau Claire, Wis., of the class "CC" Northern league. Sentementes caught and played the outfield for the now idle Poconos last season.

Dale Johnson, who drove Bernie Clemens stock car to victory in the feature event at Pittston's Bone Stadium last Sunday, is headed for induction into the service in the near future, this column has been informed. Followers of the stock car races insist that this form of racing is safer than any other involving cars. They point out that a stock car driver is well braced and that his entire body is inside the car, while a racing car driver is only half protected by the car, as half his body is outside the vehicle. I'll get my thrills by watching or reading about them, if it's just the same to everyone else.

Jimmy Werkheiser, shortstop for Pocono A. C., reportedly played a fine game against Tatamy on Sunday, despite a damaged knee. The knee was twisted last week during a basketball session at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. Clair Bloss, member of the Tannersville baseball club in the Pocono Mountain League, is attending television school twice a week at the present time. Bloss, who was an outstanding athlete at Pocono High school, is also a member of the Analomink entry in the Pocono Mountain Basketball League and is employed at Patterson-Kelley Co. as a welder.

Denton "Cy" Young, one of baseball's greatest pitchers, was on hand at the Wilkes-Barre and Elmira game last night at part of a special program. The 84-year-old Young, a right handed hurler in his hey-day, visited Stroudsburg a couple of years ago as part of a special program at Gordon Giffels field. Alex McNeill, former hurler with Nazareth, of the North Atlantic League, pitched Williamsport to a 10-4 Eastern League victory over Scranton on Sunday, giving up only seven hits in nine innings.

Bill Greenamoyer, former left handed hurler with Nazareth and Bangor, both of the North Atlantic League, was signed by Allentown, of the Inter-State League, on Sunday. Speaking of signings brings to mind the fact that Al Nozzi, utility infielder with the Stroudsburg Poconos for the latter part of the 1950 season, has been signed by the Philadelphia Phillies, for their Bradford, Pa., class "D" Pony League, farm. Nozzi was signed on the recommendation of Joe Glenn, manager of Carbondale last year. Glenn is now scouting for the Phillies.

Committee Admits Russia For Olympics

By Ben Phlegar

Vienna, (AP)—Russia was admitted to the Olympic Games yesterday after agreeing in writing to abandon politics on the field of sports.

The vote of the International Olympic Committee was 31 to 0 in favor. Three members did not vote.

During a three-hour discussion the IOC was told by its executive commission that the Russian Olympic Committee had agreed in writing to abide by the Olympic rules.

Rules include the promise to bring together the youth of the world without regard to race, religion or politics.

Eligible Russia is now eligible to take part in the Olympic games starting with the winter session at Oslo in February, 1952, and the summer games at Helsinki in July and August, 1952.

Konstantin Andrianov, president of the Russian Olympic Committee, was named to represent his country on the IOC. He heads a Russian delegation which came to Vienna seeking admission to the games.

Andrianov appeared before the IOC yesterday afternoon to offer his thanks.

He gave assurance of sincere and strong cooperation between his committee and the IOC. He said he was sure of a strong feeling of friendship on the part of the Russian Olympic Committee with the Olympic movement and with the peace in the world.

The action on Russia took up most of the first day of the three-day IOC session.

Red Sox Sell Guerra

St. Louis (AP)—The Boston Red Sox yesterday sold catcher Mike Guerra to the Washington Senators for an undisclosed price.

When Guerra became Boston property, on purchase from the Philadelphia Athletics, it was reported he would join the Senators and become interpreter for Manager Bucky Harris' crew of Cuban pitchers after veteran receiver, Birdie Tebbets, had been sold to Cleveland.

Ex-Pug Tries To Bribe Physician

Chicago, (AP)—A $500 bribe offer for re-instatement by a suspended boxer who admitted "I ain't got a cent" was reported yesterday by the Illinois State Athletic commission.

The boxer, 32-year-old Nate Bolden, whose purse was held up after a two-round knockout by Billy Fox at Philadelphia in 1946, was said to have made the offer last Thursday to Dr. J. M. Houston, commission physician.

Heart Condition

Bolden was suspended in Illinois in 1949 because of a heart condition. "Sure, I called the doctor—from a filling station where I wash cars," said Bolden, who fought as a middleweight, "I told him I had $500 in small, unmarked bills for him, if he passed me."

Reds Option Rookie

Cincinnati (AP)—The Cincinnati Reds yesterday optioned rookie outfielder Wally Post to Buffalo of the International league. He will be subject to a 24-hour recall.

Court Grants Rule To Quash Legal Action

Monroe county court yesterday granted a rule to quash a habeas corpus proceeding instituted here in a custody case after it was ascertained that the children in question are in the care of a couple living near Newfoundland in Wayne county.

The motion was not granted, however, until after testimony had been taken and counsel had entered into a stipulation regarding the custody and location of the home in which the children are being kept.

The case is captioned: Commonwealth of Pennsylvania ex rel Peter Uroblewski and Anna Uroblewski vs. Joseph and Laura Nauman.

As soon as the matter was introduced to the court yesterday, Atty. Grant W. Nitrauer, representing the defendants, moved that the habeas corpus be quashed.

Atty. George T. Robinson, representing the Uroblewski, held that there were two questions at hand, however. One, he said, was a question of law as to whether the infants are at present maintained within the jurisdiction of the Monroe county court, while the other he described as a related question of fact, basically whether or not they are at present in the care or supervision of the defendants in Monroe county.

After testimony was taken, the attorneys entered a stipulation in which it was agreed that the infants are in the custody of Allen and Bernice Smith, who reside in Sterling township, Wayne county, near Newfoundland, and that they have been in Wayne county with the Smiths since March 6.

It was further stipulated that the children will remain at the Smith residence.

In reaching the agreement, Attorney Robinson explained that he was merely agreeing for the purpose of establishing the present location of the children, and the jurisdiction of the court which would test the custody at some future date.

At this point, the motion to quash was granted.

In another court action yesterday, President Judge Fred W. Davis granted a petition to compromise in a friendly settlement of a minor claim brought against the Greyhound Bus Co.

The plaintiff, Naomi Bridge, a minor, and next of kin, her mother, Mrs. Ella May Bridge, of Barrett township, appeared in court with Atty. C. Edward DePuy, who represented Mrs. Bridge.

The child had suffered slight injuries in a fall which occurred as she was leaving a bus some time ago. Both the girl and her mother were questioned regarding the settlement before the court granted its approval.

Phases of two separate civil trespass suits were also argued yesterday.

First argument was on a rule to show cause entered in the case of Lois Mowry, now by marriage Lois Isaacs, vs. Stein Beer Co. and Howard Isaacs as additional defendant. Attys. Forrest J. Mervine and George T. Robinson, who represent the defendants, appeared.

A petition for leave to amend a complaint in the case of Philip Abrams vs. Walter D. Dutler, defendant; Frank J. Reilly, and John A. Repetz as additional defendants, was subject of the second argument.

It centered about a move by the plaintiff to amend the identification of Repetz, one of the additional defendants. Attorney F. J. Mervine appeared for the plaintiff, and Attorney Robinson for the defense.
